3.10 C) RESPONSIBILITY OF THE FL SUPPLIER - TRANSHIPMENT OF CONSIGNMENT ENROUTE IS NOT PERMISSIBLE :

The responsibility for all legal and financial implications arising out of the delay in dispatch or delay in reaching the destination depot or deviation from the terms and conditions of the Import permit / Transport Permit issued by the competent authority shall rest on the supplier. Consequently, the FL supplier shall ensure the following at his risk and responsibility:

- a) That the consignment shall be dispatched from the custom bonded house within the validity period of the import permit/transport permit issued by the Competent Authority along with Bill of Entry and Custodian Gate Pass raised by competent Customs Authority at the time of dispatch.
- b) That the consignment should reach the destination / depot and delivery be effected before the expiry of the validity of the import permit/transport permit along with Certified copies of the original Invoice of the manufacture.
- c) That the consignment should travel exactly along the route prescribed in the import permit/transport permit and that there shall be no deviation there from. In the Import Permit/Transport Permit the route will be so specified as to make it necessary for the consignment to get checked in Prohibition and Excise Check posts. The list of Prohibition and Excise Check posts are given in Annexure-IV for guidance. The locations of the Prohibition and Excise Check posts may change over time. The FL supplier is responsible for proper compliance with the terms and conditions of the import permit/transport permit under relevant rules and will be responsible in respect of any actions as may be taken by the Prohibition and Excise authorities for any violations or non-compliance and any delay / non-delivery of brands. The Corporation will not in any manner be responsible or liable for any consequences of action taken by the Prohibition & Excise authorities. The Corporation will also not be responsible to refund the advance paid towards import fee etc., specified under Clause 3.9 B (i) in respect of consignments which are ordered to be confiscated by the Commissioner of Prohibition & Excise, Government of Andhra Pradesh or any other Competent Authority as a consequence of deviation from the terms and conditions of the import permit/transport permit.

d) That in case the FL supplier can not dispatch the goods sufficiently in advance of the expiry of the import permit/transport permit, he shall report the matter to the Chief General Manager(Excise), of the Corporation, so as to reach him atleast three days in advance of the expiry of the validity of the permit specifying the reasons necessitating for extension of the validity period of the import permit. The unutilized permit along with the certificate from the excise officer of the State in which the customs bonded warehouse located that FOREIGN LIQUOR stocks have not been dispatched from the Customs bonded warehouse against such permit shall be surrendered within three days after the expiry date of the Import permit. The Corporation shall thereupon, without incurring any obligation or liability and only to facilitate the FL supplier, seek extension of the validity as may be required depending upon the circumstances of the case. Request for extension of the permits received later than the period specified above will be summarily rejected and the Corporation will not be liable to refund the amount advanced by the FL supplier towards the import fee etc., in case, such amounts are forfeited by the Commissioner of Prohibition & Excise, Government of Andhra Pradesh under the Rules. It shall be the complete responsibility of the FL supplier to ensure due compliance of all laws, rules and regulations and instructions including in particular the provisions of A.P. Excise Act and rules made there under. The FL supplier shall indemnify the Corporation against all consequences including losses and inconvenience caused to the Corporation in the context of any violation of laws, rules and regulations and instructions or accident caused to the goods in transit. The loss if any on account of short delivered quantities are liable for recovery from the FL supplier. Further, the Commissioner of Proh. & Excise and MD,APBCL are competent authorities for imposing penalties for regularization of IPs/TPs.

3.10 D) TRANSIT INSURANCE:

The FL supplier shall make all appropriate arrangements for transport and delivery of consignment at the designated depots. The FL supplier should insure all consignments against all transit risks and suitable Insurance Policy shall be taken. In case of any accidents en-route, the FL supplier should immediately lodge a complaint before the Police station having jurisdiction. Simultaneously the Corporation and relevant depot shall be informed of the accident by the quickest mode of communication. The responsibility of complying with all the required formalities for claiming the insurance amount will rest with the FL supplier. Rejection of any insurance claim by the insurer for any reason what so ever will not render the Corporation liable to the FL supplier. The FL supplier shall produce all relevant documents in proof of the accident, in case, revalidation of permits or any other legal formalities have to be complied with.

3.11. TERMS OF PAYMENT:

3.11 A) Stocks received in good and perfect condition shall alone be accepted. The cost of breakages in transit/unloading shall be borne by the FL supplier. Stocks which are found defective in packing or in quality or in any other aspect during verification shall be rejected summarily and these rejected stocks shall be disposed as per the rules laid down by the Corporation or taken back by the FL supplier with the permission of Excise Authorities if he so desires.

4.8 NON-WAIVER:

No failure of either the Corporation or the FL supplier to exercise and no delay by it in exercising any right, power or remedy in connection with or under the rate contract shall operate as a waiver of that right, power or remedy nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or remedy preclude any other or further exercise of that right, power or remedy or exercise of any other right, power or remedy. Any express waiver of any breach of the rate contract shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any other or subsequent breach.

No waiver will be effective unless such waiver is in writing and signed by the party against whom such waiver is claimed.

4.9 PREJUDICIAL ACTS:

Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, if during the currency of the rate contract (original or as extended by the Corporation) the FL supplier or any of his representatives, workers or agents are found indulging in any activity which directly or indirectly is prejudicial to the interest of the Corporation or indulge in

- a) Offering illegal gratification including offering a bribe, reward or advantage etc., pecuniary or otherwise to any officer or employee of the Corporation;
- b) Any malpractice such as forgery, falsification or fabrication of any documents, bills vouchers, delivery challans etc., or supplying Foreign Liquor which does not conform to specifications or any other act or omission contrary to law or bye-laws / rules / regulations of the Corporation or of the Government of the State of Andhra Pradesh.

The Corporation, without prejudice to other legal rights or claims shall have the right to terminate the rate contract forthwith, debar the FL supplier and forfeit the EMD/Security Deposit and such other amounts that may be lying with the Corporation besides initiating other appropriate action. The FL supplier shall have no claim whatsoever against the Corporation in respect of such termination. All losses that may be incurred by the Corporation in this regard shall be recoverable from the FL supplier.

4.10 RIGHT OF CANCELLATION:

The Corporation reserves the right to reject any or all the offers without assigning any reasons thereof. The Corporation, also reserves the right to accept the offer either in full or in part.

4.11 The Corporation reserves the right to terminate the rate contract with one month's notice without assigning any reason.

4.12 The FL supplier should abide by the provisions of The Andhra Pradesh Excise Act, 1968, and the Andhra Pradesh (Regulation of trade in Indian Made Foreign Liquor and Foreign Liquor) Act 1993 and Rules made there under in force from time to time and any other relevant enactments like Standards of Weights & Measures Act, 1976/(Enf.) Act.1986/and Packaged Commodities) Rules, 1977. The FL supplier is solely and individually responsible for all the consequences arising out of the violations in this regard. Any legal complications arising out of failure to comply with various rules shall be responsibility of the FL supplier. Any losses/damages suffered, if any, by the Corporation due to the lapse on the part of the FL supplier for not complying with any of the rules will be made good by the FL supplier.

4.13 FORUM FOR LEGAL PROCEEDINGS:

The Courts at Hyderabad alone shall have jurisdiction in respect of any suit or other legal proceedings arising from or relating to the contract.

5.0 INSPECTION:

The Corporation or their authorised representative shall have the right to inspect, test and expedite supply or get inspected, tested and expedited the supply of any brands at the works of the FL supplier or at any other place decided by the Corporation.

However, this will not exonerate the FL supplier from the responsibility of manufacturing and supplying the brands as per the requirements specified in order for supply / contract.
